Federal law guarantees every student the right to a free and appropriate public education regardless of disability. State law (603 CMR 28) documents the process for the identifying the students who may have a disability. The Auburn Public Schools is committed to providing special education services for students with disabilities from age three to twenty-one.

Child Find is a continuous process of public awareness activities, screening and evaluation designed to locate, identify, and refer as early as possible all young children with disabilities and their families who are in need of Early Intervention Program (Part C) or Preschool Special Education (Part B/619) services of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA)

Parents/guardians of children ages 3-22, who reside in Auburn and feel their child needs an evaluation for the determination of eligibility for special education services, may contact the Office of Pupil Services (508) 832-7752. You may also contact your child's school directly and speak with the special education team chairperson to discuss your concerns.

To receive Special Education services, children must meet eligibility guidelines according to the IDEA. For more information you can write: Rosemary Reidy, Director of Pupil Services, 5 West Street, Auburn, MA 01501 or call 508-832-7752.
